

Cherry Hill's Free Fall Conference Examines New Jersey's New Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights

Saturday, October 15
8:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.
FREE

Carman Tilelli Community Center
820 Mercer Street, Cherry Hill

Breakfast sponsored by:
Ellisburg McDonald's

Join us for an in-depth study and conversation about New Jersey's Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights.

- Requirements of the law and implications for School Districts
- Rights and obligations of students
- Impact on children, teachers, administrators and board's of education

Featured presenters

Jerry L. Tannenbaum, Esquire

Schnader, Harrison, Segal & Lewis LLP

Rutgers SCREAM Theater

Students Challenging Reality and Educating Against Myths

Representatives from NJ Division of Developmental Disabilities, Special Child Health Services and U.S. Social Security Administration will be available to help families.

Attendance is FREE, registration is recommended.

Free Breakfast sponsored by Ellisburg McDonalds.

For information, contact:

856-488-7868 or Ombudsman@CHTownship.com

Sponsored by

Ombudsman for Disabled Citizens

Funded by GCADA